Managers Coaching Outside Teams that Include Current Student-Athletes

The committee determined that an institution's student manager who works with a member institution on a regular and continuing basis, including when the individual is absent from the institution for a temporary period (e.g., semester/quarter, summer), is not permitted to coach an outside team that includes a current student-athlete from the institution's team.

Vacation Period Reminders

Please remind those student-athletes that will be remaining on campus during the Thanksgiving break to complete a Recess Housing application. Applications must be submitted via MyInvolvement.

It is also permissible for staff, coaches or boosters to host student-athletes at their homes for Thanksgiving dinner. Additionally, transportation to & from campus may be provided. Please remember to complete an Occasional Meal form in ARMS.

Spot the Violation

The University at Albany’s men’s track team has 3 prospects visiting campus on Halloween for official visits. The assistant coaches want to place Halloween decorations and candy all over the prospects' hotel room. The Compliance staff said this would be OK as long as the coaches do not include the prospects' names in any of the decorations.

Is this impermissible or permissible?

Two Week Dead Period

A reminder for all fall sports concluding their seasons in the coming weeks, that beginning with the day after their season has ended, the entire team must have a 14-day dead period. Although, it is permitted to have end of season one on one meetings with your student-athletes during this period.
Transfer Evaluations

As the first signing period is upon us, I want to remind coaches looking to bring in 2yr and 4yr transfers to submit Transfer Evaluation forms to the compliance staff. The forms can be found on the compliance tab of our UAlbany sports website. Below is a quick summary of some of the eligibility standards transfers must meet:
