COLUMBIA MATCH NOTES

- Columbia opens its 2018 spring women’s tennis season with a home doubleheader against both Rhode Island (11 a.m.) and Saint Peter’s (4 p.m.). The matches are the first of the spring season for the Lions.
- Columbia is coming off a successful fall season which saw eight of its nine players register records of .500 or better. Junior Andrea Kevakian (Flight B Singles) and the doubles team of senior Adi Milstein and first-year Christie Wan captured championships at the Cissie Leary Invitational, while Wan and Milstein advanced to the semifinals of the ITA Northeast Regionals with four consecutive wins.

SPORTSMANSHIP NOTES

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, COLUMBIA AND THE IVY LEAGUE WELCOME YOU TO TODAY’S CONTEST. WE ASK THAT YOU JOIN US AND TODAY’S COACHES, PLAYERS AND OFFICIALS IN PRACTICING GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP IN SUPPORTING YOUR TEAMS AND IN YOUR CONDUCT TOWARD PLAYERS, COACHES, OFFICIALS AND OTHER SPECTATORS. PLEASE NOTE THAT THE POSSESSION AND CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ARE PROHIBITED.

TO THE FANS:
After a Columbia player wins a match and is en route to shaking hands with the opponent, it is our team tradition to yell “Here we go Lions!” Lions fans are asked to repeat the players’ words in order to let their teammates know that they have just won on their homecourt.
