Head Coach

Chris Bergmann

- Westmont College

- Third Season

berth in the Big 10 Tournament.

Bergmann spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons in Deerfield, Ill., working as the head men's coach at Trinity International University. There, he was responsible for all facets of the program and saw his team get votes in both the 2006 and 2007 NSCAA and NAIA national polls, reaching as high as 23rd overall in the '06 campaign. He also served as the Athletic Advancement Liaison at Trinity, where he was responsible for meeting with the school's advancement team to develop various fundraising concept to enhance athletic programs.

Bergmann got his start in the college ranks at Hope International University in Fullerton, Calif., where he served as men's coach during the 2004 and 2005 seasons. He was the 2005 NCCAA West Region Coach of the Year, as he guided his team to a seven-win improvement and a fourth-place finish at the national tournament. His squad finished that season ranked ninth in the country at the NCCAA level, all while Bergmann served as an Assistant AD and an adjunct professor in the kinesiology department.

Prior to college coaching, Bergmann spent several years with the United Soccer League's Chicago Eagles Select Premier Development League (PDL) team, serving as the general manager, and was also involved with the Southern California Seahorses PDL team.

Over the past four-plus years before coming to VMI, Bergmann served as the Director of Coaching for the Lincolnshire Lightning Soccer Club, where he was responsible for all facets of the day to day operations for the U8-U18 travel team. He has also served in the club ranks for Pegasus, Lindenhurst Soccer Club, the Chicago Eagles club team, Kopion F.C. and the SURF Soccer Club, along with the Southern California Development Program.

Away from the field, Bergmann and his wife Kelly founded AIM Academic Mentoring Services, an academic support service focusing primarily on middle and high school-aged students. The couple has two children, Aidan and Mackenzie.

Chris Bergmann completed his second season at the helm of VMI women's soccer in 2016. Bergmann's team advanced out of the first round of the conference tournament for the second straight season, marking only the second time in program history that had happened, and won a home postseason game for the first time in school history. In addition, the team set a new school record for shutouts - with goalkeeper Ceci Keppeler setting a new individual record in that statistic - and won the second-most games in program annals (8). The team's four conference wins were the third-most in program history as well.

Bergmann's first season was also a strong one, as his proteges won the program's most games since 2009 and also advanced out of the first round of the conference tournament for the first time since that same season. The squad also lowered its goals allowed mark by 21 and goalkeeper Darien Dunham finished in the top-10 in Division I in total saves.

Bergmann was named the third head coach in VMI women's soccer history on Dec. 12, 2014. Bergmann came to VMI after six years as the head coach at Lake Forest College in Lake Forest, Ill. There, he coached the school's men's team to back to back conference championships in 2012 and 2013 and earned Midwest Conference Coach of the Year honors both years. After the second of those championships, he took his team to the NCAA Division III Tournament for the first time since 1981.

Bergmann coached eight NSCAA North All-Region players at Lake Forest including Mahir Mameledzija, three-time conference player of the year and the 2012-13 CoSIDA Capital One Academic All-American of the Year.

Also at Lake Forest, Bergmann served as the Athletic Department Liaison to the Career Advancement Center, where he created The Forester Game Plan, a personalized mentoring program for the student-athletes at Lake Forest College.

Prior to working at Lake Forest, Bergmann was an assistant coach for the women's program at Northwestern University for the 2008 season, where he helped the team to a quarterfinal

Assistant Coach Daniella Pappas

- First Season

Daniella Pappas was named the newest assistant coach for the VMI women's soccer program in April of 2017.

Pappas comes to VMI after spending two seasons at Davidson College, where she worked with the Wildcat goalkeepers and assisted with the day-to-day operations of the team.

Prior to that, she had spent a year in her home state of Iowa at Ashford University in Clinton, where she helped the women's soccer program to a nine-win season and the school's third straight Association of Independent Institutions (All) title game appearance. Pappas tutored the team's keepers to eight shutouts and a 1.15 GAA. Freshman goalkeeper Nyla Peterkin was named to the A.I.I. honorable mention after starting 19 of 20 games and earning all eight shutouts to go with 72 saves.

Pappas spent the 2013 season as an assistant coach at Belmont Abbey College in Belmont, N.C. During the 2013 season, Belmont Abbey was ranked 3rd in the Southeast Region, while earning an NCAA berth and a Sweet 16 finish. Goalkeeper Hannah Kohls was named all-conference first-team, Conference Carolinas Scholar Athlete of the Year, NSCAA All Scholar Southeast Region and NSCAA All Southeast Region under Pappas' direction.

Also during her year in North Carolina, Pappas was the head coach of a U13 traveling girls team through the Carolina Rapids organization. She was also part of the coaching staff for the U10 youth academy program.

Prior to moving to Belmont Abbey, Pappas was a graduate assistant at University of Central Missouri where she coached under Lewis Theobald.

Pappas earned a masters degree in special education at Central Missouri.

Assistant Coach Kelly Bergmann

- Third Season

Kelly Bergmann was promoted to the position of second assistant for the women's soccer program in the summer of 2016, after serving as the team's volunteer assistant in 2015. She will work with husband Chris once again after doing so for several seasons at Lake Forest College. Kelly Bergmann spent six seasons on the Lake Forest staff, working with the men's soccer program in 2009 and from 2011-2014.

Lake Forest posted a combined 55-35-5 record in Bergmann's time on staff. The 2013 team finished with a 14-7-0 overall record and claimed its second straight Midwest Conference championship with a mark of 9-1-0 in league play. The Foresters also won the MWC Tournament and earned the program's first berth in the NCAA Division III Tournament since 1981.

Bergmann was the head women's soccer coach at Hope International University in Fullerton, California, where she was named NCCAA West Region Coach of the Year in 2005. She was also an assistant women's soccer coach and head softball coach at Trinity International University in Deerfield, Illinois, for two years and led the softball team to the 2007 NCCAA National Tournament.

The Chesterfield, Missouri, native was a dual-sport collegiate student-athlete playing soccer and softball at Wheaton College (Ill.) and graduating with bachelors degrees in communications and educational formation. She was a part of the 2001 NCAA DIII National Championship Final Four soccer team and co-captained the 2001 Wheaton softball team. She stayed on while a graduate student at Wheaton as an assistant softball coach and earned a masters degree in educational formation in 2003.

Bergmann has played and coached internationally with the Chicago Eagles Soccer Club and Southern California Seahorses in Brazil, Holland, Sweden, and Mexico.
