

What does a Coach want from a Player

- ① Enthusiastic & Corrects Mistakes
A) Plays Hard B) Smart B-Ball IQ C) Teaches Team
- ② Good Listener, Good Communicator
- ③ Spoke in the Wheel, We not I
Duke example of the Fist
- ④ "Loves" not "Likes" the Sport (Spurs!)
- ⑤ Understands it's a Skill Sport: Dribbling, Passing, Shooting, Rebounding & Defense Knows their importance and doesn't want to be a "weak link"
- ⑥ Player to reach their potential & encourage others to do the same No room for jealousy
- ⑦ Goal oriented w/ Dreams Piece of Paper
- ⑧ Good person, good student, good player (All 3)
- ⑨ High level of Coachability & Accountability My Best
- ⑩ Body language reveals nothing Business like & Mature
- ⑪ "Score & Time" & when to Pass & when to Shoot
- ⑫ "5" seconds Don't be ball stopper Made X-tra Pass

- 13 Acknowledges Teammates play: good pass, nice move, great shot, great screen, good hustle
- 14 Sees the Game in Slow motion. Where are teammates, where is the defense?
- 15 Doesn't just work hard when he feels good. Can always be counted on work ethic
Draws Charges, sets screens, cuts loose ball, saves ball
- 16 Always on Time (15 min early) & ready to do whatever is necessary. Work is Honorable
- 17 Will do whatever Team needs from him
Play any position guard anyone do anything
- 18 Knows what everyone should be doing in every situation thinks like extension of Coach
- 19 Knows it's all about winning not individual play
- 20 Listens to Superiors Mentors younger people
- 21 Be the Teammate you would like to Play with.
- 22 Never stop trying to get better Lebron has!
- 23 Be reliable Foul shooter 70% Game ^{Minimum} 80% practice
- 24 Be a Historian of the Game. Learn from others
- 25 Imitate from the best & Repeat till it is good habit