

HOOP GROUP GOES INTERNATIONAL

Part of Hoop Group's mission is to educate players and parents from all over the world on the game of basketball and what it takes to play at the college level. To help fulfill its mission, Hoop Group and Pentali Basketball Club from Athens Greece have partnered up.

In late October two members of the Hoop Group staff, Directors Austin Kelly and Mike Murray, traveled to Greece to run Athen's Hoop Camp. Over 75 prospective college players traveled from all over Europe to take part in camp. For 3 days, players had the opportunity to learn from our Hoop Group staff drills to help perform on the court and received recruiting advice on the process of playing college basketball in America.

The Hoop Group staff members learned first hand about international basketball and the challenges they face in getting exposure. You can catch some of the players at Elite Camp this summer with the hopes of catching the eye of colleges.
